Hun Demobilization Almost Completed

London. — The demobilization of Germany's old army is almost completed, according to authoritative information here. After Saturday when the 1916 and 1917 classes will be disbanded the German army will consist of about 100,000 men on the eastern front, and the 1918 and 1919 classes, numbering about 450,000 men which will be kept as a standing army.

Efforts of the German authorities to recruit volunteers for the army have been unproductive, but the official view here is that they may be more successful later. Men who have been in the army four years have no great desire to continue in the fighting force, but it is expected that they will find civil life in Germany less attractive than the army, and therefore, probably will be willing to enlist later.

The British general staff does not view as dangerous the possibility of Germany making a military effort, but is taking full cognizance of the situation which the staff believes exists. It is pointed out that the German general staff still is in existence, and that doubtless much artillery is still in hand. The Germans, it is believed, could get plenty of men quickly if necessary, but the problem of stores would forestall any quick ambitions or attempts to renew the fighting.

Historian Proves Huns Sought War

Knowledge Gained From Official Documents

London. — Some of the accepted stories of the happenings of the momentous days just prior to the war, it is understood are shattered in a book based on official documents and personal notes of diplomats and officials to be issued.

The book characterizes as a fallacy the belief that the assassination of Archduke Francis Ferdinand was a "stage managed" affair but it is asserted from knowledge gained from official documents that if the assassination had not occurred the war certainly would have been started very soon.

The famous Potsdam conference of July 5, 1914, according to the book, was not what has been generally accepted. The meeting took place but it was not a formal conference as has been declared repeatedly. It is asserted that many persons who are supposed to have been there were not present. Emperor William and members of the German imperial staff were present, however, and at this conference, Germany definitely decided for war.

The book was written by Professor Chag. W. Oman, president of the Royal Historical Society and a professor of history at Oxford University. A. J. Balfour, British foreign secretary, and Earl Curzon, government leader in the house of lords, are understood to have taken an active part in its compilation.

Canada has learned the lesson that mixed farming is permanent farming and that without plenty of live stock a farm gets poorer every year.

Allies Reserve Right To Suspend New Terms

Paris. — The supreme war council has decided, says a Havas report, that the armistice with Germany will be renewed on Feb. 17 for a very brief period, with the allies reserving the right to suspend it at any time in event of Germany's failure to carry out new clauses or those which have hitherto not been executed. It is said the terms will provide that the Germans must cease hostilities against the Poles and maintain their forces within fixed limits.

During the brief period of the renewed armistice a special commission will definitely draft the conditions of an armistice which will last till the signature of the peace preliminaries. These conditions which the supreme war council is reported to have approved in a rough form have in view, it is said, the demobilization of the German army and the disarmament of the enemy under the supervision of the allies. These terms, it is understood, will be communicated to Germany so that the national assembly at Weimar will have time to deliberate upon them until the provisional armistice expires.

Marshal Foch will interview Pres-

To Deal With Aliens

Ottawa. — The government, it is announced, has taken action in the matter of dealing with alien enemies. Special regulations have been enacted by the governor in council under the powers conferred by the war measures act, 1914, and now have the force of law, whereby, with respect to localities to be designated by the minister of justice, power is conferred upon the county and district court judges, and in the province of Quebec, upon the judges of the superior court, to direct the internment as prisoners of war of persons of alien enemy nationality residing or being within the designated localities.

Draft Is Adopted

Overwhelming Vote Against Military Body to Enforce Peace

Paris. — The Bourgeois proposition for an inter-allied military force to enforce peace was defeated by an overwhelming vote at the meeting of the society of nations commission. The French and Czech-Slovaks were the only representatives voting in the affirmative.

The draft of the society of nations plan was then unanimously adopted as a whole. The final draft consists of twenty-six articles.

President Wilson will personally read the draft to a plenary meeting of the peace conference. The conference will not be asked to finally adopt it at this time.

The Japanese delegation presented an amendment providing that racial discrimination should not be tolerated in immigration laws. Several delegates urged that this would open such a large question that great delays might ensue, and the matter was dropped without a vote.

Geneva. — A trainload of German officers brought back from Palestine were ignorant of recent events in Germany and did not know of the revolution or the former emperor's flight into Holland.

Will Sell Land

Edmonton. — About 100 offers of land in different parts of the province have been received by the Alberta office of the soldier settlement board from private owners who are willing to sell under the new land scheme now pending. They are for various sized parcels, ranging from one-quarter section to a block of 2,100 acres and the prices quoted run from $5 to $30 per acre. The list of properties so offered will be placed before Commissioner Maher, chairman of the settlement board, and Major Shore, director of lands for the west, both of whom are expected here in the course of the next few days.

Australia Will Assist Farmers

Guarantee Ninety-seven Cents Per Bushel for Wheat Crop

Ottawa. — Some interesting particulars of the steps taken by the government of the Australian commonwealth to assist the wheat growers of the island continent are contained in a report to the department of trade and commerce from P. D. Ross, Canadian trade commissioner at Melbourne. He states that, independent of earlier guarantees, owing to the federal government not having reached a decision in the matter the commonwealth government has decided to make advances of 97 cents per bushel to farmers on the 1918-19 crop of recognized quality. This guarantee immediately relieved the state government from any liability in making advances to farmers.

The advance will involve a payment by the government of over sixty million dollars in addition to railway freight and all expenses in handling.

An estimate made by the Australian wheat board puts the available supply in Australia at 156,266,000 bushels.

Demands of Allies

Acknowledged That Request for Tabulation of War Equipment Has Been Made

London. — A German wireless communication received here says: "The superior council of the allies demanded from the German armistice administration at Spa on February 10 a declaration of all stocks of war materials available in Germany, or under construction, including guns, airplanes and motors."

"The demand was based on the attitude of the German army administration with the Polish question and the necessity of settling conditions for an extension of the armistice."

A Timely Talk to Boys

An Address Given by E. W. Beatty, President C.P.R., at the Y.M.C.A. Educational Classes, Montreal

E. W. BEATTY, PRESIDENT C.P.R.

"A man, from his shoulders down, is worth $2.50 a day, but from his shoulders up, there is no limit to his earning capacity," said Mr. E. W. Beatty, president of the Canadian Pacific Railway, in a talk to the employed boys of the evening educational classes of the Y.M.C.A.

"When I was coming down in the train from Ottawa this afternoon, I thought of you boys and the work you are doing, and it brought back my own school days. I first started college in Toronto, my family having moved there when I was 11 or 12. I was a day pupil at the college. I did not believe in work, however, and I did very little studying. My nickname was 'Banty.' I indulged in numerous scraps, and spent most of my time after school hours doing the thing I should have done when school was in. At the end of the year a report was sent to my parents, and I think, without boasting, that was the worst report ever written about any boy. At the end of the report was a note, to the effect that if I did not return to the college at the beginning of the next term, the principal could get along without me. I think perhaps he was right. I was humiliated and ashamed of myself, and I believe everybody knew I was of no particular use."

"I was sent to another school, where my record was not known, for which I was thankful. I there fell into the hands of a tutor who, though a good teacher, had a very violent temper. He encouraged us when he was not abusing us. If a fellow showed inattention he was likely to be hit on the head with a ruler; but the first words of encouragement I ever received came from that man. He told me 'I might amount to something, which was news to me—I had never heard it before; in any event he gave me an inspiration to study, so I worked, and the more I worked, the more I realized how valuable it was, which fact I continued to appreciate as I grew older."

"I never saw a boy or a man who got anywhere if he did not work," went on Mr. Beatty. "I know you boys have given up a great deal to take on these extra studies, but none of you will ever regret it. As you grow older you will find the competition between men very keen, and he who is fairly well educated has a distinct advantage over the man who is not. Every boy has some kind of a vague idea he would like to be something or other when he grows up, he does not know just what. You will, however, find there are three or four simple things that tend to a man's success. The first is—good health. It is impossible for a boy or a man to work against that handicap. The next thing is honesty. No man in this, or any other country, who was not honest, attained success; he may appear to do so for a time, but when his dishonesty is discovered, which it will be sooner or later, his success is at an end and his failure begins. The third essential is education; without education it is impossible to climb to any important position; and the fourth essential is work. Nothing was ever accomplished without work, and if any man tells you differently, it is not the truth. During the coming years many capable men will be required to fill important positions, and he who has the essentials to which I have referred is the one who will get the preference."

With regard to the attributes of a man, Mr. Beatty said: "The things we admire most in other men are the qualities we should develop in ourselves. The first is honesty, the second courage, and the third modesty. Without courage one cannot go very far in this world. If a man is content to step aside for others, he is bound to lose. Without modesty no one can secure the respect of his fellow beings. Every man's hand is against the man who shows he believes himself better than others. When I was a youngster, my father, who was a very wise man, used to say: 'Never think you are better than anybody else, but always think you are just as good.' Modesty is a quality I suppose I should apologize for mentioning, for it has become very unpopular and is now almost obsolete; nevertheless, it is one of the finest qualities a boy or man could have."

"I understand that with your studies you mingle a little play, which is a good thing. Every boy should play every game he is adapted for; he usually works well who plays well. I am not yet very old, and every night between September and May, when I am in Montreal, if I do not have a hard forty minutes' handball, I feel I am depriving myself of something I need. A man should have a sound body as well as a sound mind, and the two go hand in hand."

In conclusion, the speaker said: "In the work you have taken up at the Y.M.C.A. you are not now aware of the advantages you are laying up for yourselves, but these will develop as the years proceed, and I assure you that I wish you all the greatest possible success."—From the Montreal Gazette, Jan. 10, 1919.

Demobilization of Medical Units

They Will Accompany Units To Which They Are Attached

Ottawa. — The policy to be carried out in the demobilization of the medical services of the Canadian expeditionary force overseas is outlined in a cable transmitted by the department of militia to the director of public information here.

The cable states that medical units will accompany the divisions of the C.E.F. to which they are attached, in conformity with the general policy of demobilization. In addition to the regular divisional medical unit, each division will be accompanied by one general hospital, one stationary hospital and one casualty clearing station.

The general policy to be adopted towards the latter units is that they shall be evacuated from France in order of seniority; therefore, with the 3rd Division, which will be the first to leave the corps, will be No. 1 General Hospital and No. 1 Casualty Clearing Station. The question as to which stationary hospital will be the first returned is, however, still under discussion. No. 8 General Hospital, in Paris, is now being brought to England, and No. 6 General Hospital, also in Paris, will follow at the end of April.

In view of the fact that the troops from France will be returned to Canada via England, practically all the hospitals in England will be run at full strength to cope with any possible emergencies, according to the discretion of the director general of medical services. The closing of the various hospitals will be regulated by the number of troops to pass through England and the general health conditions.

On Oct. 1 there were over 37,000 soldiers in hospitals in England and 10,000 in France. Since then, over 10,000 a month have been discharged from duty or have been returned to Canada.

Kaiser Confers With Supporters

Object of Meetings Cannot Be Ascertained

Amerongen, Holland. — There have been various indications during the last week that Count Hohenzollern, the former German emperor, is maintaining communication with his former supporters.

Two secretaries of the German legation at the Hague, Koester and Schleibach, visited the castle at Amerongen and stayed over night, having a long conference with Count Hohenzollern and Hans von Guntard, the sole remaining high functionary of the old imperial court. He remains faithful to the former emperor. Baroness von Rosen, the English wife of the German minister to Holland, is still at the castle.

The object of these meetings cannot be ascertained. Further departures of the former emperor's domestics occurred during the last week, some of them, however, being replaced by new arrivals from Berlin. The German government has given notice to all state servants in attendance on the former emperor and his wife that they must place themselves at the disposal of the government by April 1 or forfeit all claims for pensions. Countess Keller still remains with the former empress.

Developments in Irish Situation

Proposals for Radical Change in System of Government

London. — Dramatic developments are impending in the situation in Ireland. The Daily Express is given to understand that Lord French, viceroy of Ireland, has come to London to place before Prime Minister Lloyd George tentative proposals for a radical change in the existing system of Irish government.

These proposals are supported by Ian MacPherson, the new chief secretary for Ireland and have been approved by the section of unionists. The striking feature of the scheme is that it deals with Ireland as a whole.

Thus far Lord French's reconciliation proposals have not met with the approval of all sections in the government. He has been trying for two months to obtain the release of the Sinn Fein prisoners but without success.

Government Commanders Seed Oats Calgary. — The Dominion government is commandeering on the track oats that are regarded as suitable for seed. Farmers before shipping have to get permits from the Dominion seed branch at Calgary if they want assurance that their grain will not be commandeered.

Parliament Cannot Now Alter Treaty

Bread Ration Cut

London. — The Bolsheviks fighting the allies in northern Russia comprises 23,000 men with 151 machine guns, 66 field guns and nine six-inch guns, according to a statement from authoritative quarters here. An attempt is being made to standardize organization and equipment of the Soviet armies and schools for officers and aviators have been opened. General Vetriss, a Lett, has been appointed commander-in-chief of all the Soviet armies. The bread ration of the troops has been reduced from two pounds to one pound daily, the information shows, and there are other indications that the Bolsheviks are suffering from a food shortage.

Increased Trade With New Zealand

Possibilities of Development Particularly Bright

Victoria. — That prohibition will carry in New Zealand when the referendum is placed before the people of that country in April, is the conviction of James Simpson, former member of the Toronto board of control, member of the royal commission on industrial and technical education and a representative of labor, who returned from New Zealand on board the liner Makura.

Mr. Simpson stated that New Zealand proposes to compensate the liquor interests to the extent of $4,500,000, this being really the good will of the license.

If the referendum carries prohibition will go into effect in New Zealand by June, 1919.

A general election in New Zealand in November is predicted by Mr. Simpson, who points out the indications are that the coalition government will be defeated and the government of the country conducted along party lines.

Mr. Simpson states that the possibilities of trade developments between Canada and New Zealand are particularly bright. Two leading Canadian bankers at present are in New Zealand in the interests of increased trade between the two countries. There are a number of Canadian business men who are great boosters for increased trade with Canada, one of the chief being George H. Wilson of Toronto.

Germany Would Borrow From U.S.

Geneva. — The Lauzanne Gazette says Germany is preparing to raise a loan in the United States as soon as peace is signed. The despatch adds that the money is to be used to pay for expected raw materials from allied countries.

Claims of Belgium

Paris. — The Belgian claims as placed before the supreme council included a demand for the return to Belgium of some territory held by Germany in addition to requests for free navigation of the Scheldt, and the restoration of certain territory held by the Dutch. The German districts demanded are Montjoie and Malmedy, just east of the present Belgian-German border. The population of these districts is mainly Walloon and their possession by Belgium, it was pointed out, would deprive Germany of an outlet for a new invasion of Belgium.

British Trade Union Denounces Strikers

London. — "Unauthorized strikes cannot, and must not, be tolerated under any circumstances," is the declaration of the parliamentary committee of the trades union congress in a manifesto dealing with the recent Clyde and railway strikes and addressed to all affiliated societies in Great Britain.

The committee dwells on the irregularity and defiance of agreement involved in these strikes and insists that it is the bounden duty of the London. — George Lambert, in the house of commons, asked whether parliament would have the power to alter the provisions of the peace treaty.

Right Hon. Andrew Bonar Law replied that it was quite impossible that about twenty parliaments should discuss the details of the treaty.

He added that as far as Great Britain was concerned the treaty would not be satisfactory until parliament had expressed an opinion on it.

Mr. Bonar Law's reply indicated that the treaty would have to be ratified or rejected en bloc.

The British delegates at the peace conference have been definitely instructed to claim an indemnity which will include the cost of the war as well as the damage actually caused. It was announced in the house of commons by Andrew Bonar Law, government leader in the commons.

This was the reply to a question: A commission is now considering the amount to be claimed, the method by which payment should be made, and the means of enforcing the payment, Mr. Bonar Law added.

Canadian Troops Are Well Housed

Chief Complaint Is Infrequency of Mail Service

Vladivostok. — Reports published in America of alleged hardships endured by the allied troops in Siberia this winter are absolutely untrue, according to a thorough investigation conducted by the Canadian Press.

Canadian troops held in Vladivostok pending a decision on the manner of allied policy toward Russia are well housed in comfortable barracks, and the weather on the Siberian coast is milder than in eastern Canada.

The British units at Omsk suffered from the severe cold, but the health of the Canadians is excellent. The chief complaint is of the lack of home news. The government has taken steps to overcome this complaint, and is now sending regularly summaries of Canadian news for distribution to the troops.

Forces Repelled On Kadish Front

Situation Is Considered More Satisfactory

London. — The situation at Kadish, on the Archangel front, is more satisfactory for the moment, according to an official statement issued by the British war office. On February 10, it is added, the allied forces drove 800 Bolsheviks back six miles. The statement reads:

"After a Bolshevik attack on Sredmakrenga, 100 miles south of the city of Archangel, on February 10, a combined attack was carried out by the allied forces and the enemy, numbering some 800 was driven back to positions six miles south of Sredmakrenga."

"The enemy attacked in strong force on the afternoon of February 11 on the Kadish sector. The attack, which was made in freezing weather, is considered to have been repulsed most efficiently, and the situation is considered for the moment more satisfactory."

One Million Workless

London. — In the house of commons J. H. Thomas, general secretary of the national union of railwaymen, said he had no hesitation in saying that the difficulties with the miners, railwaymen and transport workers were so serious that the country might at any moment be plunged into one of the greatest industrial upheavals ever known. He asserted that there were a million men and women unemployed.

minority to abide loyally by the decision of the majority in such cases.

"It is the duty of all who desire the trade union movement to be strengthened to see that a union's action be governed in regular accordance with its constitution and rules."

"If the movement is to progress and prosper it is essential that strict discipline within the membership be maintained and where necessary the machinery of responsible government must be assisted by the executives insisting that their decisions be carried out implicitly."

Discusses Bolshevism

In an issue of the Bassano Mail John Glambek discussed Bolshevism and there has been so much discussion in Queenstown as to just what John wrote that a number of his friends have asked The Call to print the article. Here it is:

In your issue of December 26th you express fear of the problems of the future and particularly you hold up your hands in holy horror about the progress of Bolshevism. Among other things you say, "Bolshevism, the unnatural child of the Russian revolution and German propaganda is increasing with alarming rapidity, and seems to fertilize quickly in the minds of disgruntled and disturbed people," etc. Now this horror you speak of seems to have taken possession of and turned the brains of most of the editors in Canada. For as a matter of fact you cannot pick up a paper that does not devote considerable space to telling us readers of the awful deeds perpetrated by the bloody and wicked Bolsheviks.

It looks strange to me that people who for four years have loyally supported a war, in order to make the world safe for democracy, should be afraid of the only country, on the face of the map, where real democracy is now being tried and that they will sanction the sending of armies into that country in order to destroy the most democratic form of government that has ever been inaugurated.

That conditions in Russia have been rather bad, stirring, bloody, etc., must be admitted, and no doubt some innocent bystanders have been hurt. But what can you expect? Revolutions are not exactly parlor games, they are terrible things. Still, on the whole, I think the Russian revolution has been far less violent than was the French. When a backward country, like Russia, in one jump goes from Mediaevalism into the most up-to-date Co-operative Commonwealth, there is bound to be trouble and some of those who stand in the way are bound to get hurt. While it is almost impossible to get hold of the true state of things in Russia, as the public press in all countries are trying to poison public opinion against the Bolsheviks, one fact appears clear, and that is, that all the peasants and workers in Russia, or those people who produce the things necessary to have in order to live, are solidly in favor of the Soviet republic and that all the howling and cries for assistance come from the dispossessed aristocrat, militarists and former moneyed plutocrats who are all united in asking foreign intervention in order that they may be restored to their former social positions and to get back and carry on their exploitations as usual. The industrial development in all modern countries has reached a stage where millions of workers and farmers, owing to their non-ownership of the tools of production, are at the absolute mercy of the industrial barons who rule the countries both industrially and politically, and for the man who has to beg another for a job in order that he may live there can be no such thing as democracy. The democracy most people talk about is nothing but a fraud.

The Russian revolutionists are trying to do away with all the old methods of exploitation; to make it impossible for one class to live by the sweat of another class. It is a tremendous undertaking, anxiously watched by every liberty-loving man and woman all over the world. It is safe to predict that if they succeed in Russia other countries must follow suit, and knowing this, it is little wonder that our own dear plutocrats are setting heaven and hell in motion to crush the new Russian Socialist republic.

A short time ago a note was sent by the Swiss ambassador in Russia speaking in the name of the neutral governments to M. Tschilscherin, representative of the Soviets. The note was a protest against the so-called terrorism perpetrated by the Bolsheviks in Petrograd. The answer given by the president of the Soviet government published in the "Nation" was quite interesting, but would take up too much space here. I shall only refer to a part of it.

The majority of the Russian people as represented in the second Congress of the workers, peasants, soldiers and cosack deputies placed the governing power in the hands of the workers and peasants. A handful of capitalists who desired to repossess themselves of the factories and banks taken from them on behalf of the people, a handful of landowners who want to take again from the peasants the land they now hold, a handful of generals who again want to teach docility to the workers and peasants with a whip have refused to recognize the decision of the Russian people. With the money of foreign capitalists they have mobilized counter-revolutionary bandits, by whose aid they cut Russia off from bread so that the bony hands of hunger may strangle the Russian revolution.

Having convinced themselves of the impossibility of overthrowing the workers' government supported by the masses of the workers, they organize counter-revolutionary riots in order to prevent the workers and peasants government from pursuing its constructive work, in order to prevent it from freeing the country from the anarchy into which the criminal policy of the former governments has plunged it. They have betrayed Russia in the north, in the south, and in the east to foreign Imperialist States, by calling foreign bayonets from wherever they could get them. Hidden behind a forest of foreign bayonets they send hired assassins to destroy the leaders of the working class in whom not only the proletariat of Russia but the entire human race sees the personification of its hopes. The Russian working people will crush mercilessly this counter-revolutionary clique which with the aid of foreign capital and the Russian bourgeoisie wants once more to put the slave's noose around the neck of the Russian people.

Yet, it is not to be wondered at, that the good capitalist, and moneyed interests of the world fears the rising of the Russian proletariat when they know that if this first Socialist republic succeeds it is only a question of time when all other countries must follow suit. But the rest of us, the farming and working class who are daily being exploited and ruled by the big financial interests of the country, why should we worry, we have nothing to lose but our chains.

Local and District News

A Naval Victory Dance has been arranged and will be held on March 3rd. The committee in charge promise this will be the event of the season. Mrs. Trainor's orchestra has been secured for the occasion.

On Wednesday of last week F. McInanley brought in two wagons loaded with hogs to sell and the horses ran away down Crowfoot street, turning at the Methodist church they made for the railway crossing. Tom Barr tried to stop them near Fourth avenue and then making cross lots intercepted the horses as they neared the crossing and got in front of them to head them into the fence. Unfortunately this did not succeed and the horses knocked him down, four wheels of the wagons passing over his chest and stomach, severely bruising him and rendering him unconscious. Dr. Faruuharson could find no broken bones and advised his removal to Calgary to see what the x ray might reveal but his friends insisted they nurse him, although few thought his recovery possible. However, he is now recovering very nicely and was able to sit in a chair for the first time Tuesday.

BUY A N IRRIGATED FARM FROM THE CANADIAN PACIFIC RAILWAY BECAUSE:

Irrigation makes the farmer independent of rainfall, and in sure good crops, not occasionally, but every year.

Irrigation makes possible the successful culture of alfalfa, the king of fodders, which insures good returns in dairying and mixed farming.

Irrigation means intensive farming and close settlement with all the advantages of a densely populated agricultural community.

Irrigation in the Canadian Pacific Railway Irrigation Block is no longer an experiment, the years that it has been tried having absolutely demonstrated its success wherever in intelligently applied.

This is the most liberal offer of irrigated farm land on record. For full particulars apply to

ALLAN CAMERON, Gen. Supt. of Lands

Canadian Pacific Railway, Dept. of Natural Resources, 928 1st. St. E. CALGARY, ALBERTA

You can buy irrigated land from the Canadian Pacific Railway at prices up to $50 per acre, with 20 years to pay and the privilege of a loan of $2,000 for improvements (6% interest): no principle after first payment until end of fourth year, reduced interest if settlement conditions are complied and no water rental for first year. Contract can be paid off before maturity if desired.

For a Quicker Start

When you start your car, don't try to do it all with the starter button, for that only wastes the current. Prime your cylinders and then:

1. Set your controls right, with retarded Spark and throttle slightly open.
2. Throw out the clutch and take some of the load off the engine.
3. Then and not till then—step on the button, and away she'll go.

We test, repair and recharge storage batteries, and always carry a full supply of battery parts, new batteries and also rental batteries.

Word has been received from the Department of Education that the consolidation of the school districts voted for some weeks ago has at last been effected.

The organized young people class of the Sunday school held a social meeting at the Salter home a few evenings ago. An oyster supper and a delightful evening was enjoyed by about 40 members.

The misses Olive and Katie Pohat Elva and Lottie Shatto and Mr. Le Roy Hollock and Mr. Eileen Osborne were entertained at the home of Rev. N. Garst last Sunday.

The boys are making good use of the beautiful weather for out door sport, including baseball and football. The assistance given by the business men was very much appreciated.

NAMAKA NEWS

Two new arrivals at Namaka. Florence Ruth born to Allan and Mrs. Gibson and Ruby Mildred born to Fred and Mrs. Bagnall.

The dance in the I.O.O.F. hall last Friday was the first since the influenza and was well attended.

The Oddfellows and their lady friends met in the I.O.O.F. hall last Tuesday evening at a card party.

The news has just reached the district that Mrs. Hall, wife of Canon Hall, for sometime rector of this parish, had died at their home in Kaslo, B. C., from influenza. Great sympathy is felt for Canon Hall and his family in their sad bereavement.

Robert J. C. Stead

Announcement has been made by the Civil Service Commission that Robert J. C. Stead is appointed publicity agent for the Department of immigration and colonization, which is presided over by the Hon. J. A. Calder. Mr. Stead is well and favorably known in the Gleichen district and throughout the entire West as a poet and author and publicity agent of the Patriotic Society, also taking a leading part in Victory Loan advertising.

Mr. Stead has intimate personal knowledge of the resources and needs of Western Canada, having lived on the prairies of Manitoba in the early eighties and been connected with some phase of western life ever since. He has been connected with the C.P.R. for six years, and aside from this publicity activities is widely known as a Western Canadian writer, his novel, "The Cow Puncher", having been among last season's best sellers.

It is a most difficult matter to sum up the work accomplished by a publicity man, and it is doubtful if there is another man in Western Canada in any line that has accomplished as much real good for the West as Mr. Stead with his books, poems, magazine stories and newspaper articles, yet he hopes to be of even greater service to the West in his new position.

The Call wishes Mr. Stead all the good things he could possibly wish for himself, and some day we would like to see him editor of a purely all Canadian magazine. We have never heard that he has any such idea, yet he is the one man we know capable of giving Canada the class of magazine that all admit is greatly required.

In future the motion pictures will start promptly at 8:30.

Takes Another View

Editor Gleichen Call:

Dear Sir:—Being unable, through a prior engagement, to be present at the meeting in Opera house in connection with the Soldiers' Memorial, where I intended to give my views on the question, I beg permission to do so now through the columns of your valuable paper. Having four sons serving His Majesty's will, I think, be excuse enough for me to write.

While admitting it is a very nice thing to remember the boys in a permanent way, I do not agree with the expenditure of such a large amount in a monument, as I believe is proposed to be erected. It looks to me like the boys coming home asking for bread and getting a stone from Gleichen. A lot of them will not have much saved out of $1.10 per day to start civil life again with. Now it may be asked what would my idea be. It is this:
That the committee in the first place ask the Gleichen town council for the unused part of town hall (which is a white elephant in the town), and do it up for a club room for returned soldiers, then get a tablet of bronze, with the names of those who voluntarily enlisted, cast in raised letters and erected either in that room or outside on the face of the building. This ought not to cost a lot. Then ask the town to keep this room up for the boys.

The balance of the money I would propose be made the nucleus of a fund to assist the returned men on their entry into civil life. In no case would I give ready cash to the men. But either hold it as a guarantee that the implements of labor, up to a certain amount would be paid for by the men, or let the committee pay for such implements or tools as the case may be,
and let the men pay it back without interest within a reasonable time.
Then, when the necessity for help is over, put it into something for the mutual benefit of these men and their families.

Another objection I have, is to the names of slackers or evaders of the Military Service Act, being placed on a memorial with those men who volunteered, some of whom have paid the supreme sacrifice. I am glad to see Mr. D. L. Brereton touched on this in your columns and I believe there are many more of my opinion, if they will only have the courage of their convictions and express their views in public.

Yours truly,
THOMAS W. BATES.

Thurles, Tipperary.—A sensation was caused here this afternoon by the arrest of Mr. Cathal Brugha, the newly elected Sinn Fein M.P. for Co.
Waterford. He was just entering a train for Dublin when Constable Barrett, R.I.C., Thurles, asked him his name, and was told "Burgha." "Is that Irish?" the constable asked, and being told that it was, he asked, "What is your Christian name?" "Cathal," was the answer. The constable said that unless the name was given in English he should detain him. Some Thurles friends who accompanied Mr.
Burgha explained that the Waterford sheriff accepted the Irish form of the name, but the constable persisted, and as Mr. Burgha refused his name in English he was brought to the barracks and detained. When searched he had on him a receipt from the Waterford sheriff for £160 in the name of Cathal Burgha.—Cork Weekly Examiner, 11-1-19.

When may we expect an order-in-council to be issued prohibiting a Frenchman from calling himself Jean Baptiste?

In future the motion pictures will start promptly at 8:30.

Cluny Red Cross Dance and Raffle

The postponed Cluny Red Cross dance and raffle will be held in the Cluny school house on Friday evening, February 28th. Mrs. Trainor's orchestra has been engaged for the occasion and a good time is assured all who attend. The holders of raffle tickets on the comforter and pillow slips will please have them on hand that night, and anyone wishing them can obtain them from the members of the society.

George A. Todd of Queenstown is leaving shortly for England to be absent a couple of years. He has leased his farm and instructed T. H. Beach to auction his horses, farm implements, etc., on Friday,
Feb. 21st.
